TIP! Everyone can play Fall Prevention Bingo. Fall Prevention Bingo is a fun way for families to identify and remove fall risks in their homes. Occupational therapists can also complete a Westmead Home Safety Assessment.British Journal of Occupational Therapy 1999;62:171-179.

Where do we get the game? Fall Prevention Bingo can be downloaded from our website (www.starklab.wustl.edu) or purchased from the National Council on Aging Fall Prevention Resource Center. Fall Prevention Bingo is an evidence-based guide that helps older adults and their families identify and remove fall risks in their homes. It is an enjoyable way to promote fall prevention.

What else do we need? A small bowl to hold the word cards, a calculator to determine the winning numbers, and a prize for the winner. The word list is designed to be cut up along the dotted lines, folded, and placed in a large bowl. The caller may ask everyone to share stories about a time they had a slip and how it may have been prevented. The caller may also ask everyone to share stories about a time they had a fall and how it may have been prevented.

Designate a bingo caller and decide on the winning pattern. Gather supplies:

- Designate a bingo caller and decide on the winning pattern.
- Gather supplies:
  - Cut and folded bingo word cards
  - Bingo cards (each player needs their own card)
  - A small bowl to hold the word cards
  - A calculator to determine the winning numbers
  - A prize for the winner

Before you start:

- Review the word list with the players. The word list is designed to be cut up along the dotted lines, folded, and placed in a large bowl.
- The word list is designed to be cut up along the dotted lines, folded, and placed in a large bowl.

You are now ready to play Fall Prevention Bingo. The word list is designed to be cut up along the dotted lines, folded, and placed in a large bowl. The caller may ask everyone to share stories about a time they had a slip and how it may have been prevented. The caller may also ask everyone to share stories about a time they had a fall and how it may have been prevented. The word list is designed to be cut up along the dotted lines, folded, and placed in a large bowl.